

"THE 1969 SENIOR CLASS WILL"

- I, FRANK ADAMS, leave one school to next year's SENIOR CLASS.
- I, VAL ALLEN, leave all the broken rules and regulations of the WASHINGTON TRIP to next year's SENIOR'S in hope that they will have as much fun as we did.
- I, DIANNE ANTHONY, leave Art Class clean-up messes to Ralph Hoovler.
- I, CHRIS ARBANAS, leave my cheery "Good morning, students and faculty members" to next year's lucky Student Council president, and the long parades and practices to Beth Lugg and Debbie Ohle.
- I, RONALD ARCADE, leave my nice soft, rolled and pleated chair in Mr. Bost's office for anyone man enough to claim it.
- I, ED BARWELL, leave Bill Mowry my ability to get along with teachers.
- I, POLLY BABCOCK, would like to leave some of my common sense to Paula Dishman.
- I, ROBERT BENNETT, on this, the 12th day of May, in the year Nineteen Hundred and Sixty Nine, leave to Mrs. McKay one pair of boat shoes and a 10,000 pound anchor.
- I, STEVE BIELOBOCKY, being of sound mind and body, leave to the Junior Class one Government book and one English book.
- I, RON BLOSZ, leave to Harry Williams my dastardly deeds that I have performed without getting caught, and my draft card to Al's.
- I, DENNY BOSSICK, being of questionable mind and sound body, do hereby bequeth to the class of 1970, the thrill of politics and dates, (as presented by Mr. Moats) and my knowledge of German to Mrs. Schiefele.
- I, ELLEN BOWSER, leave to any Junior who wishes to kick Mr. Musgrove out of class, my foot.
- I, ROY BRACE, leave my perfect record of never getting caught smoking to Bill Mowry and hope that he can achieve this goal, also.
- I, JAMES BRADY, being of sound mind, leave to Don Walters, Larry Brocklehurst, and Jon Bish all my cigarette butts that are scattered throughout the school.
- I, ELEANOR BREITENBACH, leave my shorthand ability to Debbie Erdesky.
- I, DAN BROWN, leave my non-ability for everything to everybody.
- I, CHRIS CALLAHAN, leave my "marching smile" to Debbie Ohle.
- I, JANET CALLAHAN, leave my clean biology book to any Junior who is taking Biology II and that will keep it clean for Mr. Malencia.
- I, LARRY EIANCI, leave Randy McCracken Al's Tavern.
- I, JOHN CIGIS, leave a broken drum stick to that fantastic drummer, Ron McCartney.

- I, JERRY CONOVER, leave to the Junior Class the Junior Class, because no one else knows what to do with them.
- I, LIZ CORYEA, leave my art talent to Vicky Titus.
- I, DICK CROSKEY, wish to leave my artistic abilities to Tom Munnell.
- I, BEVERLY CURRY, leave my height to Becky Winner.
- I, JOAN DANIELLO, hereby leave my ability to cry in Washington to Kathy Thomas or any other Junior girl who drinks LEMON EXTRACT.
- I, DAN DANNER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave one gold 1966 Corvair Monza and one light blue 1967 Volkswagon to my beloved sister, Kathy Danner.
- I, DAVE DAVIES, leave my upper lip to Mrs. McKay so both of her's will work right.
- I, LINDA DAVIS, leave to Jan Foster all my needles and old material from sewing class.
- I, JIM DERR, would like to leave the Lancer's Club and Mr. Seiple to Denny Riley,
GOOD LUCK!!!
- I, PAM DUNN, willingly leave my conniving ability to sneak out with Gus and my even greater ability to get caught.
- I, BARB EICH, will all the luck in the world to the class of 1970, because you will need all you can get and then some.
- I, DAVE FEDORCZYK, in my final will and testament, leave not only my highly developed body and masculinity; my ability to remain un-nerved under pressure; and my unquestionable modesty; but also my astounding, amazing, incredible ability of making fantastic come backs while wrestling, of which Mr. Lineman is so proud, and still remain ridiculously calm, naturally cool, and quite collected to Rod Chess, Larry Shipton, and Wayne Mowery, and Jan Ornato. I know that they will be eternally grateful for my ulesses, unselfishness, and desire to give willingly to those in need.
- I, DAVE FENNEL, leave three hundred gas balloons to Mr. Shoemaker.
- I, JANET FISHER, will all my half used bottles of shoe polish and leftover crepe paper to my "Little Sis" Becky Senn for use next year.
- I, BETTY JEAN FREE, will all my broken reeds to Betty Hazen.
- I, JOYCE GESSLER, hereby leave all my counting know-how and beatup lunch tokens to Harry Williams.
- I, JOE GIZDIC, leave, GLADLY.
- I, DAVE GLUNT, leave my beautiful walk to Larac Hebert, and our bottle of screwdriver broken in WASHINGTON to Karen Shaffer.
- I, KEITH GOBLINGER, hereby leave the $15.00 I got from selling my Varsity "R" jacket to Mr. Driscoll and the Varsity "R" Club.

- I, MARGARET ANN GOLLNER, leave my see-through blouse to all the Junior girls.
- I, BRADLEY GOULD, leave Mrs. McKay and the Junior Class to each other because they deserve each other.
- I, JERRY HARPST, will my great pair of hands for catching footballs to Bill Davies.
- I, CARLA HAVERDICK, bequeath six inches of my height to Kathy Thomas.
- I, LEO HAYES, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave Mrs. Schiefele and my German book to Fred Homer to do with as he sees fit.
- I, DON HERRICK, leave my old, broken down physics book to that real brain, Jon Stewart.
- I, DONNA HILL, leave to Paul Tymochko, Ralph Giarngiordano, and John Gallo, my ability to get locked in the orange hall storage room in the hopes that they never get out.
- I, RUTH HOGUE, leave to Sandy Bleakney a book entitled, "Fifty Exercises on How to Get Rid of Being Pigeon-Toed While Marching".
- I, GARY HOMER, leave Judy Kaniza with Mrs. McKay simply because the SENIORS don't want to take her along.
- I, DENNY JOHNSON, leave my tenor sax to Ed Holiga.
- I, JACK A. JONES, leave Mr. Shoemaker to the unfortunate Juniors who happen to get homeroom 36 next year. Also, with Denny Willaman, I entrust the care of the 880 relay team.
- I, JACK E. JONES, leave my ability to blow bubbles while shooting to Leonard Coryea and a book of "Choice Phrases and Nasty Utterances for Referees", '69 edition, to Mr. Driscoll and the 1970 RAIDERS.
- I, JERRY JONES, leave my ability to cause trouble in Mrs. McKay's and Miss Karido's classes to any unfortunate Junior who may have them.
- I, SUSAN JONES, leave all my future boyfriends for Carol Miller to pick up.
- I, JUDY KANIZA, leave Leo Hayes, my loving neighbor, to Jean Gilson, and my magic phrase, "oil paint" to any deserving Junior.
- I, JOAN KAUFMAN, leave my gym suit to Mary Lineman.
- I, BONNIE KEELEY, leave my ability to roam the halls first period and not get caught to any Junior who has Mr. Shoemaker for homeroom next year.
- I, RENEE KITCH, bequeath to Cher Keats and Lynn Marsteller all the lies told to me in the hopes that they aren't as gullible as I was.
- I, BOB KOLBRICH, will all my outstanding basketball ability to Wayne Smargiasso.
- I, MIKE KRUGH, leave AUGUST 18 and what goes with it to Ken Shacklock.
- I, RICK LAPADAT, bequeath my great ability to get all the girls to Dave Fisher.
- I, ROD LEFFLER, leave my fantastic "kick" to Mike Miller, and my sardonic humor humor to Bob Webber.

- I, ROSEMARY LESKOVAC, leave my letter-writing ability to John Gallo and Ralph Giangiordano so they can help Paul Tymochko while they are locked in the storage room.
- I, BECKY LINDSAY, leave my beautiful frosted hair to all the undeserving Junior girls who need that special something.
- I, JIM LISZKA, leave all my farming know-how to the F.F.A. and the Agricultural Department.
- I, RUTH LITTLE, being of sound mind and body, leave all my good character to Beverly Wells.
- I, ROBERT LOVELESS, hereby leave two dozen giant donuts from Irma's to Mr. Jones, courtesy of Mr. Shoemaker.
- I, SUSIE MANNERS, leave my twirling ability to Mrs. Koscinski.
- I, DAVE MARSTELLAR, will Mr. Ebbert to any potential physicist in the Junior Class, and bequeath to Bill Davies my worn-out gym bag.
- I, CARL McADAMS, leave my ability to get out of school for two weeks for unknown reasons to any Junior who is as lucky as I was.
- I, MICHELENE MCCARTNEY, leave future last minute brainstorm, personal art projects plus many more messy art rooms to the one and only Tom Munnell, and lots of luck to the Class of '70, especially my brother, Ron.
- I, KAREN McDOWELL, will to the Junior Class of Reynolds my moldy gym clothes and Right Guard in the sincere hopes that they use it wisely.
- I, JOHN McELHINNY, leave a pack of cigarettes to the orange hall restroom so next year's SENIORS can harass Mr. Moats.
- I, KEN McEWEN, leave my all round good natured personality, along with athletic ability to anyone who thinks he deserves it, and also, Donna Hill to Paul Tymochko.
- I, JOE McLAUGHLIN, leave all the pencils and erasers I took from Mr. Krieder.
- I, DAVE McNEELEGE, leave five of my agile fingers to Susie and five to Sharon Redzinak for clarinet ability.
- I, JANET MEANS, leave two inches of my height to Mrs. Moon so we may finally see eye to eye, and any extra oil paint I may have lifted over the years to Mr. Thomas.
- I, SAM MEYER, leave my dead fruit flies to Denny Stone.
- I, KATHY MILLER, leave my big Italian nose to John Gallo in hopes that he can keep it out of other people's business.
- I, RON MILLER, will Mr. Malencia's grading scale in Biology II to those Juniors who think they will be "A" students.
- I, SANDY MILLER, leave Mrs. McKay's vocabulary tests to any Junior lucky enough to have her for English next year.

- I, LINDA MILLS, leave my can of Secret to the person who swiped it. I hope she got a lot of use out of it.
- I, BUD MITCHELTREE, leave my SENIOR ability in the mile and all other track events to Denny Stone. GOOD LUCK, you'll need it.
- I, DEBRA MOATE, leave my taxi service to any poor sucker who takes it.
- I, DAVID LEROY MOORE, leave Mr. Frank Amato to Wayne Smargiasso and number 89 to Paul Tymochko.
- I, ELAINE MORRIS, will to Mary Cooper my great shorthand ability in hopes that she uses it wisely.
- I, NANCY MOSER, leave all the confusing toys in the physics lab to any Junior with enough imagination to use them.
- I, TIM NICHOLS, bequeath my speed and desire in track to Denny Willaman and my braces to "Lyanie" Marsteller.
- I, DARLENE NYE, leave my ability to skip school and not get caught to Debbie Erdesky. May she have as much fun as I did.
- I, MARLENE NYE, leave Judy Kaniza and a bottle of Excedrin to Mr. Ferrara, Mrs. McKay, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Moats, Mrs. Schiefele, Mr. Ebbert, Mr. Malencia, and Mrs. Brown to do with as they see fit.
- I, MIKE PATTON, leave to any Junior my ability to sleep in English class and still pull C's.
- I, LINDA PENCHEFF, leave a copy of Jack's and my guidebook, "It's Not Love Unless You Fight" to Linda Sunderlin and Wayne Smargiasso.
- I, BECKY PETERS, leave my great ability to get along with Davey to Cheryl Sample and Jim.
- I, JEAN POLLIARD, will my great driving ability to Karen Miller.
- I, BRIAN PORTERFIELD, leave my tremendous personality to my fan club.
- I, PAUL RAY, being of somewhat sound mind and body at the completion of my SENIOR YEAR, do hereby bequeath to all of next year's SENIORS Mrs. McKay's whispering English class. To those intellectual but unfortunate souls who will be taking physics, I leave one year's supply of No-Doz tablets.
- I, RICHARD REDZINAK, leave my seat by the window in homeroom to any Junior who likes to look out windows.
- I, CAROLYNN REED, leave one jar of stinky, moldy media to any Junior taking Biology II.
- I, LARRY REGIS, leave all such undeserving Juniors my ability to come to school every day and put the least effort and still make it.
- I, DEBBIE REICHARD, leave my laugh to any Junior who would want it, and my ability to pronounce "both" to next year's Varsity Cheerleaders.
- I, GEORGE REICHARD, leave one pack of gum, my gym stuff, and my honors pass to Randy McCracken.

- I, TOM REYNOLDS, leave five packs of gum to next year's SENIOR CLASS to chew in Mr. Moat's class.
- I, VAL RIDENOUR, hereby leave to Paula Dunkerley all my athletic ability and I hope that she puts it to good use.
- I, JIM ROWE, leave my skills and talents in metal shop and my ability to get Mr. "D" mad to anyone who is able.
- I, JACKIE RUSH, leave the little white worm I found on my peach at lunch to Pat Rodocoy.
- I, WALTER RUST, leave Fred Graham my love for track and my ability to run the half, HA !! May he use it wisely.
- I, JUDY RYLAND, leave my clarinet and band periods to any Junior who can take Mr. Jeffries and his jokes every day for a year.
- I, JOHANNA SEIDEL, leave all the precious moments of being a SENIOR to all future classes.
- I, JO LINDA SHEARER, do hereby leave to any deserving Junior my ability to do book-keeping and take shorthand. (Which believe me, isn't a heck of a lot.)
- I, KAREN SHELHAMER, in my last will and testimony, do hereby leave my seat in Economics class to Sue McCann.
- I, RICK SMITH, leave to my trusty friends my blue squirt gun and a statue of the bird.
- I, ROY SMITH, leave REYNOLDS HIGH SCHOOL to the Junior Class, and to Chumley, two packs of gum in the blue hall restroom.
- I, CYNTHIA SPARGO, leave to Randy McCracken one bottle of No-Doz pills to take in Mr. Moat's class next year.
- I, KAREN SPEIR, in my last will and testimony, hereby leave all of Mr. Magargee's evaluation offsets to Mary Cooper.
- I, BOB STAFFORD, being of stable mind and sound body, might leave Bob Stafford if I don't make up my incompletes.
- I, BETTY STAMM, leave my (?) great ability on the Drill Team as well as my great ability to blush to anyone who really wants it.
- I, SCOTT STULL, hereby leave my great tenor voice to the tenor section of next year's chorus. I also leave the ability to foul up Mr. Collin's math classes to any Junior who thinks he can do it half as good as I did.
- I, ERIC THOMPSON, being of sound mind and body leave to the Junior class my ability to do nothing all year but eat lunch.
- I, PAULETTE TOMASOVICH, leave to the Junior Class the treasure of Bob Shaffer. What it is full of, I cannot say.
- I, LARRY UNANGST, hereby leave to next year's football team a great season and Mr. Amato. Also, I leave a can of Right Guard and a bottle of Scope to Dave Fisher.

- I, TATE VALENLY, in sound mind and body, leave my ability to get good grades and one cold beer to Dan Reinhart.
- I, KATHY WILLAMAN, in my last will and testimony, hereby leave all Mr. Marts' evaluation work to Mary Cooper.
- I, ARTIE WILLIAMS, leave my ability to get good grades without studying to Rosemar Reed. GOOD LUCK!!!
- I, KATHY WILLIAMS, leave my ability to get caught chewing gum in Mr. Moats' class to Marie Dixon.
- I, PEGGY WILLIAMS, leave all my books and teachers to next year's SENIORS.
- I, LAUREL WINANS, hereby leave my legs to Robyn Leonard and the rest of my body to Cher Keats because she needs it.
- I, BILL WINGARD, leave my unused Government book to the greatest Junior at R.H.S., Martha Ledney.
- I, KATHY WOODS, leave my position as a racketeer to Mary Lineman or any other person brave enough to be a constant pest of Mr. Bost.
- I, DICK WORLEY, leave.
- I, SUELLYN WRIGHT, leave my last million to Ashley Wilkes and my Biology notes to Ruth Ann Mowrey.