

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Liszka
request the honour of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Theresa Janice

to

Mr. Mark Hilbert Schuver
on Saturday, the twentieth of June nineteen hundred and seventy at six o'clock

Saint Michael's Church
Greenville, Pennsylvania

Reception

following the ceremony
Knights of Columbus Hall

THE RECORD-ARGUS

Family Section

By MRS. RAE T. PAXTON

Theresa Janice Liszka Is Bride of Mark H. Schuver

Two clergymen, Rev. Father Stanley Staszewski of St. Michael's Church and Rev. Vincent Pomeroy of Greencrest Park Community Baptist Church, shared the officiating role in St. Michael's Church last Saturday at the marriage of Miss Theresa Janice Liszka and Mark Hilbert Schuver.

White gladioli and white daisy pompons formed the setting for the 6 p.m. double ring ceremony in which the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo T. Liszka, RD 5, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilbert Schuver, 18 25th St., pledged nuptial vows.

Organist for the service was Robert Moore, a friend of the bride's family. Prelude music included "O Perfect Love", "The Lord's Prayer", "Ave Maria" and Psalm 19.

In the wedding party were Miss Margie Liszka, sister of the bride, maid of honor; Miss Julie M. Liszka, another sister, Miss Janice Shuver, sister of the groom, bridesmaids; Monica Malson, cousin of the groom, flower girl; Arthur Williams, Transfer RD 1, friend of the groom, best man; David Moore, another friend, James Liszka, cousin of the bride, groomsmen; Patrick Liszka, brother of the bride, ring-bearer; Ronald and James Malson, cousins of the groom, ushers.

Beautiful Gown

A semi-fitted gown of crystal peau de soie was worn by the bride, who was given in marriage by her father. The beautiful gown, designed and made by the bride's mother, was fashioned with high-rise bodice, standing collar, wrist-point Juliet sleeves, and evening-length skirt.

Complementing the gown was a two-tier veil of silk illusion, three yards long. Both gown and veil, the latter also made by the bride's mother, were trimmed in lace with satin ribbon inserts.

nylon dotted Swiss trimmed in velvet ribbon and were worn with matching velvet Dior bow headpieces with silk illusion back veils, also made by the bride's mother.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids carried cascades of deep blue delphinium and baby's breath with yellow and green frenched carnations, while the flower girl carried similar flowers in a basket the bride had carried as a child when she was flower girl at a wedding.

The bride's mother chose a yellow knit nylon frock with black accessories, complemented by a corsage of lavender carnations. The groom's mother was attired in light blue polyester crepe with lace sleeves, white accessories and had a white carnation corsage.

Also remembered with white carnation corsages were: Mrs. Mary McKnight, grandmother of the groom; Mrs. Zofia Liszka, Jamestown, paternal grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Kenneth Nevin, Ft. Myers, Fla., maternal grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Maude Miller, Ridgway, and Mrs. Clara Webster, Cochran and Ft. Myers, great-grandmothers of the bride.

Reception for 300

A gala reception followed at the Knights of Columbus Hall, where a buffet supper was available to the 300 guests. Registered by Miss Shirley Liszka, cousin of the bride, they came from Jamestown, Adamsville, Fredonia, Transfer, Pittsburgh, Erie, Fairview, New Castle, Portland Mills, Ridway, Kinsman and Warren, O., and Ft. Myers, Fla.

Aides in serving were: Mrs. Ronald Malson, cousin of the groom, and Mrs. Harriet Liszka, aunt of the bride, who cut the four-tier cake which was encircled with blue delphiniums; Mrs. Thomas Liszka, another aunt, who dispensed punch; and Miss Delores Liszka, a cousin, ushers.

Beautiful Gown

A semi-fitted gown of crystal peau de soie was worn by the bride, who was given in marriage by her father. The beautiful gown, designed and made by the bride's mother, was fashioned with high-rise bodice, standing collar, wrist-point Juliet sleeves, and evening-length skirt.

Complementing the gown was a two-tier veil of silk illusion, three yards long. Both gown and veil, the latter also made by the bride's mother, were trimmed in lace with satin ribbon inserts.

The bride, who carried a cascade of white carnations and Bells of Ireland, also included in her ensemble a handkerchief as the "something old and something borrowed", loaned by the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Mary McKnight.

Green-Yellow Motif

Reflecting the green and yellow motif chosen by the bride were the gowns of her attendants. The maid of honor was in green with emerald green trim, while the bridesmaids and flower girl were in yellow with maize trim. Gowns were princess style ailable to the 300 guests. Registered by Miss Shirley Liszka, cousin of the bride, they came from Jamestown, Adamsville, Fredonia, Transfer, Pittsburgh, Erie, Fairview, New Castle, Portland Mills, Ridway, Kinsman and Warren, O., and Ft. Myers, Fla.

Aides in serving were: Mrs. Ronald Malson, cousin of the groom, and Mrs. Harriet Liszka, aunt of the bride, who cut the four-tier cake which was encircled with blue delphiniums; Mrs. Thomas Liszka, another aunt, who dispensed punch; and Miss Delores Liszka, a cousin, who served coffee.

Music at the reception was provided by the Harmony Sharps, of New Castle, whose members include Frank Liszka, uncle of the bride, and Andy Liszka, cousin of the bride.

When the young couple left on an undisclosed honeymoon, the bride wore a brown and white organza dress with brown accessories and a corsage from her bouquet. A 1969 graduate of Greenville High School, she is a student at Shenango Valley Commercial Institute.

The bridegroom, a 1969 graduate of Reynolds High School, is employed at Mercer Alloys Corp. He and his bride will reside in Shenango.

Pre-Nuptial Events

The rehearsal party was given June 19 by the groom's parents, who entertained at Clark House. Gift remembrances were presented to the attendants at that time.

Pre-nuptial courtesies extended to the bride included showers hosted by Mrs. Harriet Liszka on June 10, Mrs. Ronald Malson on May 27, and Mrs. Dayton Lockard on May 20.