F.C.C. Boss Says Pa[y TV] Won't Get Chance [to Put] Free TV Out of Bus[iness]

By STAN BENJAMIN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pay-television will be yanked off the air in any area where it begins putting free TV out of business, says Rosel H. Hyde, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission.

Hyde said in an interview, however, that fears the proposed authorization of pay-TV would spell the end of free programs are unjustified.

In two months, the FCC has received about 150 letters from TV fans who believe—as opposition advertising suggests—tha[t] free TV is in danger.

Last Dec. 13, the FCC issu[ed] general rules for permitti[ng] pay-TV service, in which [a] broadcast signal is transmit[ted] in a scrambled form that [can] only be unscrambled on [a] home TV set by use of a [illegible] decoder.
