Coach Stone and Greenville: We've been watching your program over the years and wouldn't mind seeing you in Hershey sometime in the future. The community of Greenville is similar to my own hometown from what I hear...lots of great fans and tough kids who want to play the game. I know our coaches think you run a top flight program. Coach Curry has a lot of respect for Greenville and Coach Stone come playoff time. I see Perry is talking smack again. I'm personally going to implant my facemask on Rutherford's forehead this year if I see him again. Good Luck The Rest Of The Way JD#93 & The Dawgs

Although Greenville has been very successful this season there is still one thing missing. That is a passing game. Mason has an incredible arm and everyone knows he can pass. You guys are also supplied with the best reciever in the county in Jim Spiegel. That connection could open up a lot for the running game and not to mention bring a new look for other teams to worry about. Try passing more, you have the Qb's and recievers.

Enjoyed reviewing your site. Im from PA originally, as you can surmise Montour HS. My kids go to Lassiter HS in Marietta, GA - also the TROJANS, hence why I checked you out. You should schedule a road trip to Atlanta and play the Lassiter Trojans. Would be a fun trip. Lassiter is AAAA, and 8-2 this season, but a good team. Band is also primo (429 in Band I. There is also a Band II with 98). Come on down in 99 and check out our southern hospitality. Your site is great.

Dear Coach Stone, Herrick, Hull, and Staff,

As one of the first Commodore Perry students to go through the GHS football program I want to personally thank you for your efforts and sacrifice. After graduating from CP in '92, I went to Penn State and graduated with a teaching degree. I am now employed by Conrad Weiser High School (near Reading) and am currently coaching Jr. varsity, Jr. high , and scouting for the varsity. Much (if not all) of my coaching desire and philosophies come from the countless inspirational talks, friendly conversations, and lifelong principals that you instilled in us through the Trojan program. I now see how coaching can be an invaluable blessing.

Best of Luck Against General McLane!!!

God Bless,

I am currently working for Fellowship of Christian Athletes and am a varsity football assistant in Marshall, IN. I want to thank the Trojan Staff for inspiring me to pursue a future in football coaching. The lessons that I learned about sportsmanship and winning have come from the entire staff.

This goes out to the team:

How could you guys blow a 28 to 7 lead in the second half? That just blows my mind. This team could have gone on and won another district 10 title. Greenville's defense was strong all year and then they go and give up 31 points this past weekend. I hope most of you seniors realize you will never play football again so if you feel you didn't play your hardest or could have done better then you just let a great moment in your life slip away. I also would like to know if Greenville will ever have players that can catch the ball about 99% of the time. Cliff Mason threw the ball extremely well this year but had a lot of his passes dropped. He could have easily thrown for over a thousand yards. Todd Shimshock did a great job running the ball this year. Well I guess it is time to look ahead. For the seniors it is to college and for the rest it is the rest of your high school career.

Sincerely,

-A Little Disappointed

Date: 11/11/98

Comments:

In reference to "A Little Disappointed's" comments. I am a member of that Trojan football team that you seem to be ashamed of. I believe your comments lack any intelligent merit. For a sixteen or seventeen year old kid to catch 99% of the balls thrown to him would be incredible. In fact, professional ball players don't accomplish this. You must have played pro ball the way you talk. I sorry to disappoint you and all other fans but frankly I not going to lose sleep over your feelings. I wish that you would have been at the game so you could have cheered us on. If you were there you would have noticed how appreciative their fans were of their team. It seems to me that our fans expect too much.

This is a heck of a web page. I am really anxious to see who is on the dream team. I am a former player who is a die hard greenville football fan. I was coached under Bob Stone, Brian Herrick, Gary Hull, Kirk Smith, and Mo Zane. These are probably the best coaches in the state. It will be a sad day in greenville football history when they are disassembled. I kow that everyone was disappointed with the season this year, but I know a lot of teams who wish that they could have the success that greenville has. Good luck to the future teams of greenville. I will be watching, and please continue to update this page, you are doing a heck of a job.

The greenville trojans have heart. i love the trojans as much as i love the steelers. both teams play with excelemt intensity. i love bill cowher and bob stone. both coaches have thier own style, but both coaches know how to win. the success of these coaches is based on thier assistants and players, and i am sure that they will be the first ones to tell you this. That is what i love about them. Bob Stone is one of the most easy going guys guys in the world. This is an incredible web site!! Where was this in 1970?? I was part of an excellent Trojan team in 1970, we finished the season w/ a 6-2-1 record and a share of the Mercer County title. A little history about Bob Stone, he started with us in the intramural program (7th & 8th grades / Penn Junior High), we moved together up to JV's, then to the Varsity team, it was OUR group that broke Coach Stone into the coaching ranks. Playing for Bob Stone was a tremendous experience! Best of luck in the 1999 season!

Can't believe that Greenville High School Trojans have a site on the net. But then again I found it hard to believe that old Penn High School is gone and has been replaced with an old geezers home now. At least half of the population of Greenville must live there, huh?

Ill have to oil up the wheels on the walker, take my Geritol and come by and watch some Trojan football and eat those "gut bombs from the Majestic!

I was searching the net and I came accross this page. I can't believe the Greenville Trojans have their own home page. Remember this a team that has not made it to the state finals and never. Reason for that is their coaches don't want to play any tough teams. All you play is NWC, and MCAC teams. That is not going to cut it. So what if you loose a regular season game, but at least it will make you better come playoff time. I'm a graduate of Sharon High Schools. I'm not proud of our conference schedule, but at least our out of conference schedule is tougher. Play us. Afraid to get beat in the regular season. One final comment and then I will let you all go. Yoy might be the best in the NWC, but you will never be one of the elite in the state. Good luck this season because your going to need it.

hey trojans, i hope everyone is ok after we kicked you up and down the field last week. can't wait to do it again in the season....

I think it's funny that all these other teams out there are once again aiming to knock off Greenville, because they know that the Trojans have been the best team around for years.

So go cry on your own web sites and let your playing do the talking for you. Who knows, you might just win next time...but then again, probably not! :)

Oh no greenville you beat meadville, they are really hard to beat, we only have 3 seniors. you guys are lucky that you have depth to play with. but i will admit 6 ppl coming through the hole on your power play is hard to stop! well you guys shouldnt think beating us is allworld cause its not, oh well. good luck.

p.s. look out for oil city

Date: 9/15/99

Obviously that person from Sharon that says there isn't any compitition from the NWFC hasn't ever played a team from it. This is the toughest conf. around. Oh yeah, and Oil City is returning with another good team.

you're all wasting your time!

this entire town is obsessed with the sport. Lets find something better to do with your childrens time, like LEARN maybe.

What are the chances of your son even playing football after college, IF he gets that far. There are more important things.

Besides football wouldnt be such a big deal if greenville would actually get a little competen in our division. Everyone knows Bob Stone keeps us in this division cause he cant stand to lose. No one cares about greenville high school football. get over it.

Date: 9/19/99

Good luck this year

Date: 9/19/99

Hey, this is to the LOSER who wrote that nobody cares about football in this town. Well, obviously you care about it, otherwise why would you bother surfing the web and coming onto this page? Are you suggesting that all high school sports should be cut, or just football?

Also, where does that crack about Coach Stone not liking to lose, and no competition on the schedule come from? Have you actually ever attended a game yourself, or are you just running your mouth? Obviously if you had attended a game within the past 3 years or so, you would undoubtedly know that the Northwest Conference has become the most competitive conference in class AAA in D-10, by far.

Anyways, have fun staying home Friday nights surfing the web. As for me, I'll be at the game.
GREENVILLE FOOTBALL RULES!!!!!!

Date: 9/23/99

I think the web page looks great again this season. The dream team page has been a conversation piece for myself and fellow GHS grads since it was created last year. I can recall three different occasions last summer that I was talking with Dream Team Quarterback nominee Mike (posty) Marshall about why he and some of his teammates (Jim Wasiluk, Andy Houpt) are the best players at their respective positions. The page has definitely brought up much debate between former GHS grads about why they should be voted #1, or how they didn't get nominated when they should have. The only definent blunder that jumped out at me when I looked at the nominees was the absence of Ray Augustine. He was one of the best ever at defensive tackle. I'm sure there are others that got left out, but that name clearly comes to my head. First next year, I think a page to pick what year had the best team and why, would be a great addition. Of course you know my choice has to 1993, we were tough, and I would vote 1983 a close second.

Good luck trojans

I'm a GHS graduate and I am a big fan, but we DO need some competition in the regular season. Beating those chump erie teams by 45 points every week just doesn't cut it. Wilmington was a step up, but we need something more. How bout Erie McDowell? You learn more from a loss than a 49-0 game with your second and third string in the whole second half. Just trying to help. Good luck!

This note is to the greenville fan that attended the game in warren and thought it was necessary to yell at the players at half time. First of all you are NOT a coach, and second of all get a life. These are high school boys, they are NOT professionals. Many will not even be playing at the college level. If you can't go to a game and enjoy it without going berserk, stay home and watch professional football and yell at the T.V. We don't need you--- we've got tons of GREAT fans. To the team GREAT job!!! Warren was tougher than we thought. In response to the comment from a concerned trojan fan---- did you go to the franklin game, or the warren game??? Those teams were tough and we stepped up. Our schedule also includes Oil City, and Wilmington. Those are some tough teams, and we're up to the challenge. We are NOT just playing powder puff teams- Pay attention!!!! We're proud of our Trojans, and GREAT coaches-- keep up the good work. You make alot of exciting Friday nights for us. ----- a proud fan

Ode to the Champions (Greenville Trojans)

Who are these people-
These doers of deeds,
These dreamers of dreams
Who make us believe?

Who are these people
Who still win the day-
When odds are against them
And strength fades away?

These people are champions,
For they never give in.
A heart beats within them
That is destined to win.

They follow their dreams
Though the journey seems far,
From the top of a mountain
They reach out to the star.

And when they have touched it-
When their journey is done-
They give to us hope
From the victories they won.

So here's to the champions-
To all their great deeds.
They follow their hearts
And become winners indeed.

My response goes to all those that think your going to beat the MIGHTY TROJANS. Get REAL. We might not play the toughest schedule in the world, but were still an awesome team. I would like to see us BEEF up our schedule. Please Coach Stone play some tougher teams and then we will be ready for the playoffs and bring back a state title back to this proud town. I have not missed a game yet this year and won't. How ever far you young men go I will be going too. I am very proud of this program. Go Get Them Trojans. NWC, D10, State Champions. I know you young men won't let down this town.

LET'S GO TROJANS! LET'S GO TROJANS!

LET'S GO TROJANS! LET'S GO TROJANS!

Now to all those other inferior teams visiting this site, I suggest that you do your talking on the field. If you watched the Trojans in the past three years you would learn that is how they do it. Well I guess if you played them you figured that out already. Good luck guys in the play-offs and leave your mark.

Date: 9/30/99

This is to all those out there who think that Greenville plays a light schedule: with the addition of the 2 Erie teams to the schedule in 1996, there is only enough room on Greenville's schedule to play 2 non-conference games per year, which are currently being filled by Reynolds and Wilmington. In fact, Slippery Rock, Grove City, and Hickory, amongst others have requested that Greenville drop them from their schedule within the past decade, due to the fact that those teams needed some lighter competition on their respective schedules.

So keep in mind that finding an open date for both Greenville and another perspective team in common is difficult enough, let alone trying to find at least semi-local teams willing to play the Trojans.

Date: 10/1/99

As a parent of a Trojan player, and a big fan, I'd like to say YOU GUYS ARE GREAT !!! I have seen it happen for years when a school puts together about 5 years of success and all of a sudden think they can walk with the big dogs. Wilmington, as well as other schools (Oil City) should take a lesson from Coach Stone and his teams that talk is cheap and the old saying "Walk in quietly, kick their butts and walk out quietly" should be learned by other schools. Remember: We have been doing this for 30+ years. Great job Greenville and good luck on Friday against Oil City.

Date: 10/16/99

Sad thought in how you were predicted to lose the Wilmington game. I believe you will be predicted to eat some dirt in @ 6 days when OC comes to town to beat you down! We haven't scored less than 25 or given up more than 13. More than what we can say for you!

Yea Greenville, you guys are going to kill Oil City!! They are not all they are hyped to be, we (Meadville) just played them Friday and we were tearing them up on our first couple drives. We got two touchdowns called back on us or we would have only lost by 6. Oh man you guys are going to kill them, I cant wait to see the score.

Great win Friday night over Wilmington. You sure did put a hurting on those Hounds. You showed them who had the best offense, defense, and team is. They thought the MCAC is the best conference but they learned the NWC is the best around here. If that is the best the MCAC has to offer well their conference must be no good. Good luck Friday night. Oil City has a good team, but I know you guys are up for the challenge.

For all you Meadville players who are saying that Oil City is nothing... That's what everyone does when they lose..blame it on the refs. I don't think you guys even have a record, so I don't wanna hear you. Ya..you guys had a good opening drive on us..i'll give you that..but let's remember the final score, ok? you guys were tough last year, too, and we took you. So, Greenville...we know that you guys are gonna be ready...and I don't doubt you guys are gonna give us a good game..but you better be ready for us. Time's windin' down till the game..and until loss #1 for the Trojans!
An Oiler Fan

Date: 10/22/99

I was very impressed at the thumping the trojans put on the wilmington team...and poor wilmington will probably be getting throttled by sharon this week..i thought that oil city players would take notice that talking trash on the greenville team does nothing but fire up the team even more..but as i read down through the comments, the trash talking is again starting from oil city..so i pity you this week..i hate to use the "r" word (revenge), but i am sure that last year's game is very much fresh in the minds of the greenville players and no doubt they will want to pin a loss on oil city more than ever before..good luck trojans..

Thank you to the Oiler Fan who put the rivalry aside.
You are correct. I cheered on the Oilers last year in the playoffs and were hoping your team went far. The NWC clearly had the best conference around this part. The MCAC is a JOKE. All we hear up at these parts is how good they are. We put at big whooping on their best team a few weeks ago. Franklin and Oil City gave our team a better game than Wilmington. Our top three teams would beat the MCAC's top three teams. I can't wait till Greenville beats up the ROCK Saturday night. I'm getting sick of the Greensburgh brothers(Bob of WWIZ, Jeff of the Herald) complaining as they always do on how the MCAC had no AAA team in the playoffs last year. You had no team above .500. You just think the MCAC deserves the most teams in the D10. Now were going to have to hear them complain about Kennedy for a whole year. I guess I can say one good think about the MCAC is the Sharpsville fan that wants to see Greenville in Hershey. Thank you for your support. HERE WE GO BLUE DEVILS HERE WE GO!!! Hopefully both of our teams are in the finals. Go Trojans!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I attend Thiel college and am a graduate of Perry. I was at the game Saturday and like to say the Trojans played a good game and had a good year. Their fans have a lot to be proud of. These young men represented their community and the whole mercer county well. I attended several of their home games and I know Perry beat a heck of a team. If Greenville had as many breaks and calls that went their way they would have won. I just wanted to say they had a good year and from what I have heard will be next year. One question to all the Greenville football players out there. Have any of you thought about attending Thiel College? We could use you. One last thing your fans have a lot of class. I noticed when the offense came off the field for their final series you stood up and cheer them on. That is a lot of class in my mind.

Greenville should have been the top team. But no higher then Raiders. Jimmy is so cool.

It seems as if Gary Hull has done a decent job helping coach the Trojans to another great season. Gary is a guy who I knew growing up and who was one of my brother's good pals. His dad taught at Thiel and his sister Lois was a looker. He was not as good a quarterback as he thought he was -- that's why Joe Paterno turned him into a linebacker. Stone who isn't from G'vills went to Thiel and came to GHS and succeeded Ed Snyder and Bob Ballock -- with what has proved to be great success.

Looking at this website and thinking back 35 years to Snyder and Ballock, there's not much difference. Work hard. Beat bigger guys. An eclectic mix of kids on the team: (we didn't have the advantage of the Catholic guys; they were mostly at St. Mike's)(there's never been a right- or wrong-side of the tracks in Greenville). Congratulations on a good season. Read: "Friday Night Lights"

Greenville Players, Great year!!! You represented D-10 and the NWC well.

Greenville Fans,

Quit running your mouths about the refs! If the punt is recovered, or the Trojans don't turn the ball over, or they get better line surge and run the ball better, or etc. etc. the ref's calls do not matter. Perry won the game and I hope they beat West Allegheny and go back to the PIAA State Championship. I also hope Greenville is there in 2000!

Thank you for a first class job covering Greenville football. In reviewing this year's schedule, it's hard to believe that Greenville has a season with only 8 games and it doesn't include Reynolds and Grove City. When did Greenville become a suburb of Erie? All kidding aside, it is disappointing to see a schedule without local rivals. I try to see a game or two each year, but the teams on this year's schedule aren't much of a draw. Maybe the time of the Northwest Conference has passed. Good luck to this year's team and thanks again for the hard work that goes into this site.

Comments: How good did Greenville look against Wilmington? --- Long time Trojan fan greenville will probably win nwc but i think that is all the farther they will go. wilmington ran all over them and wilmington is not that strong this year. Young didn't look that good at quarterback either and Vendemia dropped like three passes. Greenville's line doesn't look to bad but they have no fullback. Their pass defense is awful but that's how it always is. Best of luck trojans but i don't think you are as good as everyone thinks. 7th in the state, PLEASE!!!

Comments:

Comments:

This is an excellent site, best of luck in the 2000 season. Keep up the good work.

Comments:

some one has never heard of the pre-season i can see you can bet your last buck greenville will be ready to go sept 1 in erie when it counts

the scrimmage is used as an aid to help the kids learn and change the things that are wrong as for the bad pass d new coverage this year first time out with it and because one kid falls down and there is poor timing between sammy and gio now does not mean that those will be problems all season long

Comments:

we seem to have a pessimist on here. just b/c sammy had a meteocho game and gio dropped 2 passes doesn't mean that they are not timed up. you fail to realize that young threw an almost perfect ball to gio on a play where gio had beaten the defender by at least 5 steps. just b/c a 17 yr old kid dropped a ball that was undoubtedly hard to catch doesn't mean he didn't look good. from what i saw, both of them owned wilmingtons secondary. it looked like they could have scored anytime they wanted to from anywhere on the field. there was not one player from wilmington that could have run with gio. in my mind, if Brian would have thrown the ball all ten plays they would have had an easy time throwing anywhere they wanted to. and still with those dropped passes the 2 had about 3 receptions for almost 80 yards.

Comments:

Great web site to be able to follow the Trojans from Richmond, VA.

Seems like nothing changes from year to year. Preseason scrimmages always bring out weaknesses that you need to work on before the first game. Back in 72 I remember Coach Ballock and Stone giving us a real once over after one of our scrimmages. But we were ready for the season opener. I have great confidence that the coaching staff will do the same this year.

I do have one question that I don't understand - why no game with Reynolds? How can you not play your biggest rival?

Good luck to Coach Stone and the Trojans in 2000.

Dave Clelland - GHS - 72

Richmond, VA.

Comments:

Shame on you Reynolds for dropping the Trojans. Good luck against Cochran!!

Shame on you Wilmington for dropping the Trojans.

Guess you figure you could never beat them twice in the same season so better go for it in the playoffs, huh? Or maybe you were afraid two losses - Greenville and Sharon - would keep you out of the playoffs.

Funny how the Mercer County Conference wants us so bad but none of their teams will play us.

Se ya-ll in the playoffs.

Comments:

you guys have a good team. your ground game is solid but your passing game needs work. you guys would be unstoppable if you would just throw the ball to Mike Malik. I know Malik's athletic ability pretty well and he is just as good a receiver as Gio is.

former Trojan player

Comments:

Franklin will drop about 50 points worth of TDs on Greenville. Greenville's team is overweight and can't handle any team with speed.

Comments:

Greenville is always a good team, but can they keep up with say Franklin's speed? Franklin's passing attack was off last year and they still gave Greenville a run.

Comments:

Greenville has pretty decent team speed and a good passing game too. Fri Sept 15th is just around the corner and as always Greenville will be ready for a challenge.

Comments:

When was the last time Greenville had more yards passing than rushing?

Comments:

Greenville had more passing than rushing against McDowell. 170 passing yards and 106 rushing yards. that happened on Friday.

Comments:

Comments:

No on can stop Greenville's passing game. Look at the stats. They had 170 passing yards as to their 106 rushing yards. Sammy to Gio.

Comments:

I am upset to see that with all the talent at greenville, that no one is going D1? I think the coaches should do more to help their players get scholarships!!!!

Comments:

OH WELL HERE WE GO AGAIN.....THE LAST 3 YEARS THE CHAMP FROM UP NORTH HAS BEEN DEFEATED BY THE PITTSBURGH CITY LEAGUE CHAMP...IT IS TIME FOR THE TEAMS UP NORTH TO START PLAYING BETTER COMPETITION SO THAT WHEN IT COMES TIME FOR THE PLAYOFFS THEY WON'T GET STOMPED..PLAY SOME TOUGH OHIO TEAMS..IT IS TIME TO DISBAND THE NWC AND FORM A REAL CONFERENCE

Comments:

I predict that we will see Greenville in Hershey this year. They have an amazing passing game. Sammy and Gio work as a real team. Go Trojans!

Comments:

look out greenville next week you are done cause 79 and 67 are going to run all over you

Comments:

Here's to the City League guy who can't figure out how to turn his caps lock off: If Greenville was considered a "magnet" school (like Perry) and could recruit from anywhere within the entire district (like Perry), then they'd undoubtedly make it to Hershey every year! So, the next time you go blabbin' about how good your City League is, just remember that Greenville goes above and beyond expectation every year with kids who actually LIVE within the boundaries of the Greenville/CP school districts!!!

Comments:

Franklin better worry about Warren first.
Greenville = A class program, that is why they win.

Watch out Greenville this isn't your year It's the year of the ROCKETS!!!!

Comments:

Too bad Greenville's homecoming will be ruined this year by the new NWC champs the TITUSVILLE ROCKETS

Comments:

I have to make a comment to address the person who expressed concern about Greenville not sending players to D1. I think that one of the reasons that Greenville's program is so consistant is because they know how to make the most of their players, good, bad, or mediocre. They run a team and succeed because EVERYONE does their part. One thing you have to realize is that frequently when other areas tout, "a player is going D1," that the individual is attending the University with the intent to play, but doesn't necessarily have a full athletic scholarship, as is implied. Also, what makes you think that going D1 is always a good thing? Our kids go into D1 programs where they are just a number. Many are better off going into a smaller, quality program that better serves them as students AND athletes. You will never know what the coaches go through with the recruiters and you probably wouldn't believe the horror stories anyway! Just suffice it to say, it has nothing to do with the coaches failing to support the athletes.

Comments: hey titusville, bring it

I think that Titusville has a very good team and it will be a great game. Ask Franklin what happens when you trash mouth Greenville on the web. I hope Greenville gets up even though it is homecoming. This is your year for greatness Trojans.

Comments:

To the Trojans

I hope you enjoyed your time on top of the NWC. This is the year of the ROCKETS! We are going to show you guys that you truly are overrated.

Comments:

hey, im a rocket player and believe me all ive seen in these comments are bull.
the only way you win football games is to play 4 hardnose quarters.

i personally believe that we (greenville and titusville) are very equal on both sides of the ball.
we (titusville) know what it means to pay the price and i certinally know that greenville does also.
the game in 2 weeks are the games dreams are made of
#1 vs #2 on the home teams homecomming.

Comments:
The game between Greenville and Titusville will be no contest. I have played both teams this season and Greenville is going to beat Titusville by at least 4 touchdowns, Titusville will not be able to run on Greenville and they couldn't even pass on us. And Titusville will not be able to stop Gio.

Comments:
Hey Titusville, What was your big gun Sye still doing in the game against Franklin in the 4th quarter? Greenville could pad their numbers too but they have class and don't believe in running up the score with their first string players. They like to let all their kids play. That's why they have good teams year after year. The only stat that matters is the Win and Loss Column after the game. Greenville Fan - Class of 1978

Hey Trojans,
I'm a student @ GHS and I think you guys are great!! I know you'll try your best for the game this week. Its homecoming and it would be sad to loose but everyone knows you will try your hardest and do your everything you can to win! Football is a very big thing in Greenville and you guys are doing a great job of keeping the tradition alive!!!!!! So Go Get 'Em!!

Comments:
Titusville Rockets are the best in football and greenville is going down this year. Last year you beat us at our homecoming and this year we'll beat you at yours.

this goes out to the titusville fan that said this was the year that they would beat titusville. Its safe to say greenville came prepared.

Comments:

To Coach Bob Stone and staff, Congratulations on a class act. Proud to be a GHS alum. Good luck the remainder of the season (hope that's about Thanksgiving time) Have enjoyed every minute of every game so far this year. Looking forward to lots more!!!! KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK!!!!

Comments:

I admit that you guys have a great football team this year. I am a student at Titusville High School, and I thought that we would at least give you a run for your money, but alot of our players got to cocky, and you beat the snot out of them. But when play-off time comes around, it will be a whole different ball game. We will be ready for you this time. And believe me, we will beat you in the play-offs. Whether you want to believe it or not, we are gonna win the next time around. If not this year, then next year. If it wasn't for Erik Adams, you guyz would not have won. He is your whole team. And that is all there is to it.

Comments:

this is to that titusville kid that said erik adams is greenvilles whole team. kid you dont know what you are talking about because if erik adams wasnt there gio and sam and the offensive line would take over. we have many weapons and they will beat you again in the playoffs. No doubt about it!!

Comments:

Hi Mike, keep up the good work.We are very proud of you and the Trojans.
Hector and Tess

Comments:

Dear Titusville Fan

it takes 11 MEN on both sides of the ball to play football. Erik Adams is a great back but he did not hold you to "0 POINTS" and "-11 OFFENSIVE YARDS". The dedication and PURE RAW TALENT that is molded into a winning team by the coaching staff continues to amaze me every year. a coaching staff who demands that the kids give all they have every time they step onto the field is what makes greenville football the shear powerful force that it is. i really hope that you are right about titusville being better next time, but we will show up prepared to fight til the last snap. see you in the playoffs(if you make it)

To the team of 2000,

Well it that time again, football at it best. The people at work joke with me that they know when the football season is here, because all they hear is "GREENVILLE TROJANS THIS AND GREENVILLE TROJANS THAT". Well i guess you have to brag a little when you come from a school that has great football and great coaches (that don't get enough recognition from PIAA/WPIAL). So i just want to wish the Greenville trojans football team and all the coaching staff the best of luck this 2001 football season. And "GO GREENVILLE TROJANS". VMAYES CLASS '82

I have been watching Greenville football for 40 years and Friday night was a total disaster. The team did not even run through the band before the game and it was all down hill from there. They were not ready to play at all and I have never seen that from a Greenville team. I hope the attitude changes this week. Good luck in the future and play GHS football from here on the rest of the year.

And as for Franklin, Greenville walked all over them the other night as everyone knew they would! Also for everyone else in the NWC that thinks they have a shot, well bring it, their not afraid of anyone! They'll match up against any team that is gunning for them which is everyone since they win it every year! good luck trojans!

Comments:

I saw the Greenville Warren Game last night and I must commend the coaching staff. From a coaches standpoint it was a thing of beauty. Run 2 plays..if they cant stop ya..keep running them till they do. Simplicity. Sometimes I think that High School Coaches overthink the game and have a huge playbook that can confuse players. Greenville Football last night was effective simplicity. Nice....

Comments:

Can't wait till yall get in Titusville's back yard!!! Yall are in for a beatin from the Rockets...Just remember Jamie Sye was the #1 rusher in the NWCA and you guys new he was comin with it! Coaches mistake! We have some supprises this year, and, WE ARE 4-0 AND YALL ARE 3-1 WE #1 SO FAR!!!
So good luck Trojans cuz YOUR ALL GONNA NEED IT!!! Titusville Rockets

Is it just me or does it seem that too many people involved with the Greenville Trojans are content with winning the Northwest Conference or the D10 title? Yes, that is quite an accomplishment, but Greenville has had the potential to do much better. Have we learned nothing about having a balanced attack to move further in the playoffs? Why aren't we passing the ball...at all? Yes we can beat the Erie teams and the Franklins and so on...but, we will fall on our faces again in the playoffs. We can work on our passing game and still beat these low-grade teams in the Northwest Conference. Everyone is happy during the regular season while we're winning, but then everyone changes their mind about the offense after we lose to a team with a balanced game. Maybe I'm wrong. What does everyone else think? Thank you.
Concerned Trojan Fan

Comments:

This is a cool site. It brings back a lot of memories and makes me think -- at least for a few minutes -- that things haven't changed that much. Fond memories (well, mostly fond (film of a missed block on a Meadville nose guard still haunts me): beating Sharpsville because we scouted a tackle-eligible pass and intercepted it; stifling a Hickory drive by figuring out they we're going to keep running the same play; letter sweaters worn by girlfriends and "VG" jackets, the ultimate emblem of having done something well for one's hometown. Good stuff.
Gary Hull was a sophomore at GHS in 1964 when I last played. He's gotten a bit grayer since then. Bob Stone had just started coaching the JV's. Ed Snyder and Bob Ballock were damn good coaches; they taught us a lot about teamwork and pursuit.
Let's hope that 37 years from now institutions like GHS football will have kept providing kids like me or those who won last night the springboard to be able to go beyond high school and do something constructive. It's a scary, sobering time these days. Visiting this site and seeing teamwork and civic pride so well displayed is invigorating. Again, cool site! JWR. GHS '65

I AM NOT HERE TO TRASH TALK YOU BUT TO WARN YOU...YOU HAVE A GREAT TEAM BUT I AM JUST TELLING YOU NOW THAT THE ROCKETS ARE GONNA BE TOUGHER THAN EVER THIS YEAR! THEY WILL NOT LET UP JUST BECAUSE OF A BAD GAME AGAINST FRANKLIN AND YOU GUYS WILL HAVE TO EARN A WIN IF YOU CAN BEAT US!

-ROCKET FRESHMEN

Comments:

Wow, the Titusville lineman needs to learn when to shut up after he gets his butt kicked. Greenville will beat you worse then they did last year. You could have given your best effort against Franklin and still would have lost. You straight up got beat and are going to get beat by Greenville this week. Franklin is not poor, they are pretty solid. Watch the Greenville film, Franklin had the ball with 6 minutes left and the score was 21-14. Greenville won, but they didn't walk all over Franklin. Actually Franklin seemed to pass all over them. Greenville will win the conference and titusville will not make the playoffs, that is two things for sure.

Hats off to the 2001 Trojan football team and staff... you have struggled through a down year in Greenville football which I'm sure has been frustrating to the players, coaches and fans alike. But you have kept the tradition alive with your effort each week as the team and staff look to find that combination that works. Keep your heads up, you won your conference and are in the playoffs (one of only four teams in the district to play for the AAA title, the season is over for the rest of the teams).

Get focused and give your best effort in the upcoming playoff game(s) as you have the opportunity to move on.

Hey TROJANS i just wanted to say goodluck this year i will be at every game this year.. GREENVILLE RULES!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Comments: Greenville looked better against Farrell but they R a single A team now aren't they

Comments:

Good Luck to the Greenville Trojans this season. Congrats to Coach Bob Stone on the PA Hall of Fame induction and his soon-to-be 200 wins. Show the MCAC that you'd better be careful about what you wish for, you just might get it. Go get 'em Trojans!

Comments:

your right farrell is a single A team but they are also the number 2 team in the state and greenville held their own against them while missing key players, but none of this talk matters if you cant back it up
GOOD LUCK TROJANS!!!!

Comments:

Good Luck Trojans as you begin your 2002 season! We wish you the very best! We know that you have worked hard and have paid the price - now go out and get those victories! Congratulations to Coach Stone for his Hall of Fame Induction - HE was always a winner in our hearts! Coach, thanks for all you give to our players! God Bless You! Go Seniors - show that pride that has always made Greenville GREAT!! We love you!
Trojan Mom(s)!

Comments: Good luck to the Trojans of Greenville. Give the town something to be PROUD about!

Comments:

GOOD LUCK TO THE GREENVILLE JV FOOTBALL TEAM.....EVERYTHING FOCUSES ON THE VARSITY, AREN'T THEY THE VARSITY OF THE FUTURE? LET'S HAVE A LITTLE MORE COVERAGE ON THEM. THEY REALLY ARE GOING TO BE FUN TO WATCH. GOOD LUCK TO COACH COOPER AND COACH STONE ON FINE SEASONS.

Comments: Get It Together Greenville!!! You Can Do better than that..

Comments: Greenville JV Team rocks...Just wait untill they get up to varsity New Castle!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Comments:

Hey guys every time you run out on the field you should be ready to play some football!!! Get pumped up i know you guys can do alot better than what you've shown all of your fans

Comments: you have a big game with grove city this friday (Good Luck)!!!!!!!!!!

Comments: I wish i was there to see the games still but i'm not!!!! Good luck to you guys!!!!

Comments: come on trojans u are a lot better then you're playin. get it together and win the next game

Comments: GOTTA WANT IT GUYS.....

Comments: When was the last time that Wilmington, Sharon and Greenville started their seasons 0 - 2

Comments: How about those JV team 2-0!! Great job guys keep up the good work!

Comments:

It is nice to see Greenville back in the MCAC, where they belong. But to the person that said MCAC should be careful what they wish for.....I think not !!! Don't know who is the best in the MCAC yet but doesn't look like it will be the Trojans.

Comments: Let's step it up Trojans and show everyone what we are made of!!!

Comments:

Good Luck Jv football team this season! You guys are awesome! Let's see a big 0 in the loss column at the end of the season! KICK SOME BUTT!

Comments: Go watch the JV's.....they WANT IT!!!!

Comments: Good luck to the team and coaches at Slippery Rock. We can do it!!! Win or lose we still are behind you. Great kids and coaches. Good luck with the rest of the season.

Comments:

We can't win the MCAC anymore but we can still can kick some butt and go out of this season with a winning record!

Comments:

Good luck Trojans Friday against Wilmington. Keep you heads up. Let's get fired up for this Friday. We are still proud of you. You can win this game. Let's go Trojans.

Comments:

I hope that you guys get fired up for this weeks game against Wilmington. It is a home game and you guys are better than you have shown. Forget the other four and start fresh on Friday night.

Comments:

Well Gents,It's time to step up and play the game of football that you have worked so hard for all summer.

The question is "HOW BAD DO YOU WANT IT?"

So it is up to you, only you can change the outcome.

Best wishes for the remainder of the season.Go trojans!!!!

Comments:

lets go varsity.... this is like the greenville dream team. over 1300 pounds of beef on the front line. a really good qb. and some quick backs and recievers. you should be 4-0. get your heads in the game. "DO YOU WANNA WIN"???

Comments:

Good Luck JV TEAM! You have really played as a team and you always play like you want it. That's why you are winning. I always support the Varsity as well, But so far I have yet to see this team play as a team and come out on the field like they really want the win. I have seen that look in past years. You guys have talent. Let's see you use it as a team. There is no I in team. I see a lot of I, I, I. You really need to come together and I think you will see VICTORY!!! I for one miss that look. I'll support you win or lose. You have that win in you, I know it, DO YOU?

Comments:

Congrats to Coach Stone for his 200th win. Coach will say it is just because he has been around for so long, but we all know better. Coach Stone - you have had a great influence on so many young men. Congrats on a great accomplishment. Thanks for keeping the program going strong over the years.

Comments:

Nice game Friday night guys. Special mention to Tom McCormick, Frankie Ellis, Justin King, & Tim Hudson!!! Way to hussle.

Now let's get ready for REYNOLDS.....

Comments: Tim Hudson's doing a great job this year. Congratulations and good luck.

Comments:

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE TEAM WITH THEIR WIN OVER REYNOLDS. GREAT JOB TEAM!!! LET'S DO IT THREE MORE TIMES. LET'S TAKE THE BUZZ OUT OF THE HORNETS FRIDAY. GOOD LUCK TO EVERYONE.

Comments:

Great job guys Friday Nite. Dennis nice job handling the ball in extreme conditions. Timmy great catch also nice pass Dennis. Tim i think the films will show Frankie had his knee down on the punt return. T-Mac great job with the Punts dont know who the snapper was but he did a great job. Brent @ Frankie nice effort. Good job O-Line. Defense great job 5 first owns excellent effort. Lets keep it up playoffs are not out of the picture. also class act Coach Stone taking a knee at the end.

JV'S Great game saturday. Looking forward to next week. Also great scrimmage freshman. We've got good ball players coming up. You show good team work.

Comments:

Great job team. The "Older Regulars" are doing a great job. This is a team sport and everyone is working hard. No need to slam the "older regulars". Why not support them. The seniors are good leaders, Bayer, Young, Reynolds, Hudson, Ellis, Cascio, Swartzbeck, Scelsi, Patton, Rice, Van Buren, Bowen, Foy, Lanning, Lindsey, Kremm, Alexander, Baker, They are playing their hearts out. I wish the TEAM good luck Friday night against Mercer.

ok trojans now is the time next week to prove you belong in the mcac. Other than the two bad games against Grove city and Slippery Rock you have done a very good job. We may be the best team in the district that won't make the playoffs. let's show Sharon that we are a good team and build a momentum for next year. Finish the season strong

Comments:

Congratulations on your 4th win in a row last Friday. I know the beginning of the season started a little rough, but New Castle is State ranked and I understand Marietta is having a great season still. So once we started County play, I imagine it took those 1st couple games to get on track. But now that you have "Hit the ground running" you've played some inspired football. Since this will be Senior night, and the last game on The Trojan Gridiron, I sincerely hope, that the Seniors especially, along with the rest of the team, can dig down and play the best game they can play. There's a term I've heard that says, don't leave anything on the field. Play 110% and don't wait for your teammate to make the play, you step up and make the play so the entire team benefits. Play hard, play aggressive and play like we know you can, and the victory will be there. Best of luck!!!!

Comments:

This is a big week for the Trojans. Work hard and we can be 5-4 with a winning record. That would be a real building block for next year. Also you would eliminate Sharon from the playoffs. Show Sharon that we can compete with them. Good luck and thanks to everyone of you that worked so hard for your school and town. GO TROJANS

Comments: Hey people, the Trojans still have a shot at the playoffs. A Trojan win along with a Grove City loss friday night would likely equal a playoff birth for Greenville. So don't start talking about next year quite yet...

Comments:

Hey Greenville, Good luck to you in Friday's game with Sharon. I'm also hoping for a Grove City loss so you make the playoffs. If so, good luck to you in the playoffs. I'm glad to see a team that had such a ruff start bring it all together to change their season around. A friend and old-time grad. from Reynolds ('78).

Comments:

Too bad you guys lost against Sharon. Sharon just got lucky. Next year Sharon won't remember what it's like to beat us.

Comments:

Hey guys, hope you all use this last season as a building block for next year. We all have down time so now you know what it feels like and you shouldn't want to feel it again. I have traveled 5 hours from Bethlehem Pa to see Greenville play numerous times and every time I was treated to a great game. I also came out to see Mr. Solderich, (Earth and Space science teacher) who happens to be my little brother and I am glad that he teaches at a school with such great tradition, both academically and athletically. Good luck in the off season and good luck next season. You all should think about scheduling some teams from District 11 if you can, your new league may hinder that though but you can find some good match-ups out this way.

Hello: I'm probably one of the shrinking number of former players from yesteryear---having played for the Trojans at Packard Park in 1943 before leaving for the Army Air Corps.. I think your website is cool and very interesting. And ALL YOUR COACHES---WOW. We only had Coach Snyder----and he coached both football and basketball. Can't remember even one assistant, but guess we had one. And anyone over 175 pounds was a big and usually pretty slow guy. I played at Thiel for 4 years after the war and have been living in New York and now the Chicago area ever since. Maybe one of these days I will come back to homecoming.

Comments: you guys rocked reynolds,,,Greenville RULZ!!!!

Comments:

That sure was a tough loss at Hickory but life goes on.You will all learn that as you get older. Now you guys have to get fired up and end at 6-3 and how many schools would like to have that record.You also have the chance to get the all time record for Coach Stone and that would be a feather in your cap as the team that put him over the top.You should set those goals the next two weeks and play the best football you can.You are a better team than your record shows. There still a lot of football to play so approach it from that angle. Good luck the next two weeks

Comments:

Anyone can win on any given day,and the game isnt over until the final gun.Look at the Indianapolis and Tampa game,won in the last four minutes of the fourth quarter.So lets go to Hickory and show them what we are made of.

I think Greenville knows how tough the Mercer County league truly is. We showed a lot of positive things last night in spite of the loss. You have to pass to win down here and not just run all the time. The passing was good and we will have to get to the playoffs since all the rest of the games are not going to be easy by any means. I think the remaining teams have to prepare for the fact we can throw the ball too. Good luck the rest of the season and hopefully we can make the playoffs

Comments: great year so far lets keep up the good work...

Hey trojans...keep your heads up. You'll knock wilmington flat. Hopefully Leffler and Wilson will be back in the lineups this week. Think you mighta had a better chance with them playing against the rock. Wish we could play them again...would be a different game I'm sure.

I'm awfully disappointed that the band and the cheerleaders were not required to be at the game on saturday. The football team was required to be there, why wouldn't their supporting cast be there? Homecoming dance, hair appointments should have been secondary. If the game would have been Friday, they would have been there. As for the game, it's over and done. Let's not hang our heads. Let's look forward. You are a MUCH BETTER team than what showed up on Saturday, let's get ready for Wilmington. Good luck Friday night and the rest of the season.....A TRUE TROJAN FAN THAT STAYED 'TIL THE END ON SATURDAY.

I'll answer it for you. The game was changed at last minute, too many people had plans to get their hair fixed, etc. On the other hand, which football player had to get their hair fixed? Most of the people who showed up for band were male. Give us a break.
Oh, and Good Luck Trojans.

what is "tommy mccormick, jv player" mean?

(it means that a JV player sent in the response to a question asked earlier in August as to who the starting QB would be) last year, jv and varsity, tom probably had more playing time than anyone in the program. tom will give you 200 percent everytime. i wish tom and the rest of the teams (jv and varsity) the very best of luck this season.

Comments:

Hey guys, I'm off to college now and will be checking in every now and then to see how everyone's doing from up here in Milwaukee! I wish the varsity, jv's, and coaches the best of luck on this upcoming season. I'm sorry to say that I will not be able to attend one single game, but I'll definitely be there in spirit (haha). Well I gotta get back to studying! Cas you better carry on the tradition of #4! Big hits all year buddy! And to the rest bring home a great season. A great web site. I left Greenville in 1960 for college and than the military but have fond memories of Greenville. I went to St Mike's where, due to the size of the school, everyone was needed on the football team. However, we usually won the Erie Diocesan title. Also, same in basketball. Would have been than a powerhouse if the schools combined athletics. Bob Stone's brother, Bill, although only 5'8", was a "pure" shooter. Also, the Ceremuga's were terrific athletics. Noticed your Dream Team list and the absence of John Scullen. Didn't he set rushing records? Thanks for the site.

Some probably feel the same way I do, that this is the year for the Greenville Trojans to go deep into the playoffs. They have a solid field goal kicker, decent OB, reliable receiver, and a solid 1-2 punch at running back with zuschlag & nicklin. Last good year that greenville had a kicker was when the trojans faced up against Perry years back. Watch out for those same trojans to show up again this season. Or maybe they're just off to a lucky start!! I know they need to improve that defense, because there going to have to base it around speed and tackling rather than size. key player of the year-- senior Mike Castiglione

-Joe Doddo Offensive and Defensive Lines

-Mark Korcinsky Tight End

-John Korcinsky Linebacker and Full Back

-Joel Kitch Tail Back

-Nate Hart Center

These Guys were very good at their positions and I Don't know what your requirements are but they should be considered.

Play hard this Friday Trojans. This is not an insult, but you need to play a full game and not just a second half. I want you to win!!! How bad do you want it? I hope you want it as much as all your fans who are cheering for you. You are a great bunch of young men and I want all the best for all of you and that especially means a win over Reynolds. Get fired up and play like I know you can and already have. GOOD LUCK TO ALL OF YOU!

Comments: Keep it up Trojans!

#78 Rules!!! Sorry I missed you last week Chunk. Anyways, way to beat those Raiders and Good Luck this weekend with Northwestern. Play ever game like its the last game you have left to play. If no body else wants to play with your intensity they only have themselves to blame. Blow it up on Defense!! Wish I could be there... Good Luck #78 Rules!!!

Good Luck Trojans Saturday vs. Harbour Creek. Play YOUR game, concentrate, no silly mistakes....FOCUS, FOCUS, FOCUS.....put 4 complete quarters together and your season will be extended....Again, best of luck Saturday.....Let's get a good crowd down at Slippery Rock to cheer this great group of kids on!!!

Comments:

#78 Rules!!! Its playoff time! Play it like its your last game. They aren't going to just give it to you all. Now is the time to step it up a notch chunk. Dominate on "D" and give Haborcreek a Beat Down.....Gooo Greenville....#78 Rules!!!

Comments: This team is awesome.

it's good to see that greenville had another great season. I hope the seniors had a great time this season because i know i did my senior year, we didn't have the best season my senior year but i had a lot of fun. Im glad to see that all the early morning practices over the summer that i shared with tommy really helped him to develop into a great quarter back. Im sad to say that i could make it to any of the games, but i hope to see everyone over christmas break.....qb's make the gville team.....

Comments: Trojans lets see playoffs this year. You can do it we have faith in you. Seniors go out with a bang.

Comments: I wish The Team the blessing and grace to win this Season all the way!

Good Luck! >From Ashley Skiff Grad Class of 2003.

Comments: To all the Seniors work hard everyday. At every practice you either get better or worse so make sure you guys are the leaders and push everyone throughout the whole season, get better everyday no matter how hard it may seem, hard work pays off in the end! I hope you guys have a great season and best of luck, I'm hoping I can make it to a couple games. Start it off right and land one on that Seneca Qb and bring the wood to Reynolds!

Get after em!

Good Luck!

Phil Matusz Class of 05'

Comments: Emmett and Scelsi should be a good team this year. Utilization of the two will be paramount to the success of the season. Best of Luck to the mighty Trojans Comments: I just wanted to wish the Trojans good luck this year and ask if they are going to be covered on the radio this year.

Comments: Good luck to the Greenville Football team and coaches. I hope that you start out with a big win against Seneca. I know that you guys have big shoes to fill but i am confident that u guys will have a good season. Remember work as a team because one of you can't do it by yourself. Another thing don't led with you head. Have fun playing the game.

Comments:

I think the trojans need to work on their sideline behavior, up at seneca i watched a couple of the sophmore trojans mess around and it looked pretty embarassing, but other than that keep your heads up and work hard

Comments:

The best to the Trojans this year. Here is some of my unasked for advice: {1} We need to tackle much better. (2) Pass more with some more crossing patterns. (3) Do Not use the famous pass in the corner of the end zone this year. We do not have the quarterback or receivers to handle that play this year --- This season can be salvaged with hard work and smart coaching --- Ted Jones

Comments: is Seneca that good or is Greenville that bad?

Comments: yep Greenville is that badno they are just a young in experienced team

Comments:

It's fun down here at the bottom, nothing to lose and everything to gain. NOW START CLIMBING!!!! bring some of the other teams down from the top a couple of rungs.

We could still go 7-3. How bad do we want it???

Comments:

It's time for this team to come together and play as a team. If the seniors and sophomores could bring it together and play as a team they could start winning. It's hard when none of your starters have ever played with each other before. Don't give up Trojans, and hopefully your coaches won't give up on you either.

Comments:

Trojans just put everything you have into your last two games. Defense you played one whale of a game against Reynolds. Now your offense needs to dig deep and have a good game. It will all fall together. Good luck friday. A FAN

we trojans are going to beat all schools that compete against us forever come on we can beat any one that comes on our field and we will beat them on their field and we are going to win the championship this year because the boys got game so lets show every one that we can beat them so we lost a couple games so what we will beat them this time
